1. PURPOSE & SCOPE

This policy defines the standard framework and procedures for managing employment separations at the organization. It ensures transparency, legal compliance, proper knowledge retention, and a smooth exit experience for both the employee and the enterprise.

1.1 Classifications of Separation

- Voluntary Resignation: Initiated by the employee via formal written notification submitted to their manager and HR.
- Involuntary Termination: Initiated by management due to performance management outcomes, gross misconduct, policy violations, or corporate restructuring.
- End of Fixed-Term Contract: Natural completion of a temporary or contract role without renewal.
- Retirement: Reaching mandatory statutory or corporate retirement age.

2. SEPARATION ROADMAP & CLEARANCE PROCESS

Phase	Responsibility	Mandatory Deliverables
1. Notification	Employee & Line Manager	Submission and written acknowledgment of resignation letter; confirming Last Working Day (LWD).
2. Knowledge Transfer	Outgoing Employee	Documenting ongoing tasks, key contacts, and completing formal sign-off with successor.
3. Asset Handover	IT, Admin & Security	Return of laptops, mobile hardware, access cards, and company tokens before LWD.
4. Exit Survey	HR Operations	Conducting exit interview; disabling network credentials on LWD at 18:00 hrs.
5. Final Settlement	Finance & Payroll	Disbursement of Full & Final (FnF) statement and encashments within 30 to 45 days post-clearance.

> Notice Period Terms: Confirmed employees must serve a 30-day notice period (60 days for executive roles). Payment in lieu of notice requires prior written approval from HR leadership.
